PRESS RELEASE

GLOBAL RISKS, which will provide cover for multinational companies and large risks, in close coordination with MAPFRE INTERNACIONAL. This reorganization is completed with the integration of MAPFRE CAUCIÓN Y CRÉDITO under the international business activities, with the goal of enhancing its coordinated development with a multinational focus.

José Manuel Martínez underscored that the current economic crisis is the consequence of a number of imbalances, such as the lack of regulation and control of certain financial activities; the lack of awareness of the risks; and the contempt for traditional ethical values, prudent management, professionalism and effort, among others.

He has also said that the market is not recognizing enough MAPFRE's potential, and has criticised that at present it is allowed to borrow stock for short selling operations on the Stock Market, aimed at reducing share prices.

José Manuel Martínez concluded his speech stating that "in MAPFRE we gather strength at crisis times –historically we have always come out of them stronger-, because we continue to have ambitious projects, because we are a team of professionals who devote their lives to insurance and who share a common culture, that is clearly a winner these days, and most importantly, because we will work to overcome the crisis we have to face".
